Mr. Kiriazis thanked Director Johnson for the great job he is doing with the new pole barn. I drove up there the other day, and it was almost completed, probably about a month ahead of schedule. He stated that it was supposed to be done sometime in December and now it will probably be done by thanksgiving. Mr. Kiriazis said that he drove down to North Park the other day and they were putting the roof on the pavilion, so it is really coming along. He explained that he hasn't been down to Calvin Park, but from what he understands it is also really coming along as fast as the other thing. Mr. Kiriazis thanked the administration for everything they have done with these projects.
